Assistant Inspector General for Recovery Oversight

Peter Kim

Deputy Assistant Inspector General for Recovery Oversight

The Recovery Oversight Office conducts, supervises, and coordinates activities that:

- Focus on prevention, detection, and reporting;
- Use education, rapid response reporting, and focused review;
- Deliver training to DOI and its bureaus on contract and financial assistance fraud;
- Improve single audit reporting through auditor education and training opportunities, as well as quality control reviews of single audits, with an emphasis on American Recovery and Reinvestment (ARRA) funds;
- Review planned or ongoing major projects to identify potential problems;
- Monitor contracting database and other forensic analysis for suspicious and irregular activity; and
- Produce reports summarizing activities.
